INVITATION

CGS Interdisciplinary Seminar

“Adopting an interdisciplinary approach to address South Africa’s governance challenges 30 years after democracy”

The keynote address will highlight the 30 years since SA attained its democracy. The discussion will be addressing the Apartheid story, which is marked with ambiguity as its achievements are often overshadowed by its own downfalls. Also, the political results from the transition are visible as the regime enjoys broad legitimacy, opposition parties are tolerated in every sphere of government, and the Constitution enjoys great respect globally.
