

THE DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY, PRACTICAL AND SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Invites you to a webinar titled:

“REFLECTING ON A LIFETIME OF TEACHING AND RESEARCH IN THEOLOGICAL ETHICS”

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: PROF LOUISE KRETZSCHMAR:

Date: 22 October 2021

Time: 10:00 – 12:00

Venue: MS Teams

Enquiries: mmakokl@unisa.ac.za

Click link below to join

<https://bit.ly/39Txxhc>

PANELISTS:

Prof. Wessel Bentley and Dr. Thembelani Jentile

Prof Louise Kretzschmar has been teaching Theological Ethics for three decades at the University of South Africa. She has had a formative impact on the development of Theological Ethics as a distinct discipline as well as postgraduate programs in Christian Leadership. She has also made a contribution to the Theological Society of South Africa (including Ethics sub-groups) and the Baptist Convention of South Africa. This roundtable conversation will provide an opportunity to engage in conversation with her life's work.