

College of Law

Prof Puleng LenkaBula, Principal and Vice-Chancellor of the University of South Africa in Partnership with the JUDGES PROJECT

cordially invites you to the College of Law's seminar entitled: "Accessibility, Independence and Impartiality of the Traditional Court System" to be presented by Justice M.I. Madondo", Deputy Judge President, KwaZulu-Natal.

Justice Mjabuliseni Isaac Madondo a Judge and Deputy Judge President of the High Court of KwaZulu Natal Division, prior to his elevation to the bench he acquired vast experience as counsel and senior counsel at the Pietermaritzburg Advocates Bar. He has authored several books the most recent being Msinga History and its Political Landscape; The Role of Traditional Courts in the Justice System; Revelation of God's Truth and Plan; and Umsuka Nemvelaphi Yomuntu Omnyama. His forthcoming book is entitled The Importance and Relevance of the Customary Law in the South African Democratic Constitutional State. He has also published several legal articles and has since been appointed as an Academic Associate and Honorary Professor at Unisa.

Date: 24 June 2021

Time: 10h00 – 11h50

Microsoft teams:

RSVP: Prof M Budeli – email: budelm@unisa.ac.za

Click here to join the meeting.