

MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME: STANDARDISATION IN ORGANISATIONS

2022 INTAKE

TUITION FEES
R46 867*

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Standards are crucial to markets and society, ensuring that products and services are conducive to public welfare and company performance. The Management Development Programme: Standardisation in Organisations (MDPSO) aims to raise awareness of the nature, impact and benefits of standards and is suited to participants from all sectors, whether they are engineers, economists, lawyers, business managers or administrators in government. Knowledge, skills, attitudes and experience in standardisation add value to professionals and roles in a large variety of fields and can be applied to any scope of employment

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Participants in the MDPSO must have a Matric and three years' relevant managerial experience. Alternatively a portfolio of evidence of prior learning will be considered based on Unisa's policy requirements for short learning programmes. The following would benefit from the programme: • CEOs • General Managers • Directors • Business Systems Managers • Quality Managers • Systems Auditors Compliance Managers • Standards Developers • Senior Managers • Technical Committee Members • Standards and Standardisation Researchers • Strategy Managers • International Trade Practitioners

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

After completing this one-year programme, managers, professionals and practitioners in the public and private sector should be able to increase the participants' awareness of the nature, impact and benefits of standards and standardisation to markets and society, improving the ability to contribute to company performance and public welfare.
